

" International Seminar on foreign Investment in Iran"

28 February-2 march 2009 - Tehran.

On the basis of the signed agreement with the Islamic Development Bank, a three day specialized seminar titled "International Seminar on Foreign Investment in Iran "will be held in February 2009 in Tehran aiming at introducing foreign investment opportunities and potentialities in Country.

The Seminar provides a ground for exchange of views and interaction on investment opportunities & potential capacities in nine sectors as follows:

1. Petrochemical products
2. Car and automotive parts manufacturing
3. Construction
4. Upstream and Downstream Steel Products
5. Tourism
6. Energy
2. 7. Telecommunication Projects
8. Food industry
9. Agriculture & Aquaculture
10. Pharmaceutical

The content of the Seminar are arranged and organized in a way to distribute a considerable part of the required information among investor and investee firms in advance in order to provide adequate time for the managements of the participant firms to assess the possibility of cooperation and investment in the face to face meeting in the course of the Seminar.

Due to necessity of providing a professional business oriented environment for preparation of the Seminar contents are arranging its specialized sectors and panels the pioneer, reputable Iranian firms have been identified in each sector to take the responsibility for steering each specialized panel in the Seminar. The steering firms through coordination and interaction with the other Iranian companies in related sectors will publicize the Seminar and identify and invite reputable interested foreign companies with available trade and commercial links to materialize a sustainable economic cooperation in the context of the joint investment through international trade cooperation.

Foreign Investment Office